Detecting and treating cancer in its early stages is crucial. It can mean the difference in your survival.

Florida's Breast Cancer Early Detection Program provides assistance by offering FREE cancer screenings to qualified women.

Date: October 23, 2024
Time: 10am - 4pm EST
Location: Department of Health
2965 Municipal Way
Tallahassee, FL 32304

ELIGIBILITY

Florida Resident

Female, aged 50-64 years

Female, aged 40-49 with immediate family history of breast cancer (parent, sibling, children)

No health insurance or insurance that does not cover Clinical Breast Exams and Mammography Services

Low Income

Early detection is crucial for successful treatment.

Please contact us right away if you experience any new breast pain, lumps, nipple discharge, or any other changes

FREE

Registration Required

Contact:
Maja Troupe
850-404-6404

Florida Breast Cancer Foundation - Saving Lives

Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center - University of Miami Health System | Moffitt Cancer Center

Florida Health Leon County

North West Florida Cancer Control Collaborative - One Community Fighting Cancer

Big Bend AHEC - Area Health Education Center

Big Bend Rural Health Network

Usha Kundu, MD College of Health - University of West Florida

CCRAB Florida Cancer Control & Research Advisory Council